Dear Mr. Weisberg

After viewing your T.V. Program, Perhaps, I was carried away with my memories of Pres. Kennedy's visit to Miami.

I'm 90% sure that I saw a man with a pistol in the crowd in Miami when Pres. Kennedy spoke there on his way to Texas, but it was wrong of me to judge the man's motive. He might have been a body guard in the Crowd; however, he didn't look like a body guard. He might have had a pistol inside his jacket without any intention

I using it. I only saw about four inches of what looked like a pistol and this leaves about 10% doubt in my mind.

I did not tell my husband about writing either of the two letters, so please do not call me at the phone number that I gave you in previous letters. He is not well so I don't want to disturb him.

I don't think I want to become involved. I have mixed emotions about it. I hope that you will understand.

Sincerely,

Phyllis Needleman

P.S. I shall appreciate your destroying both letters.
